Freathy (Free-thee) is located in Whitsand Bay, just to the west of Plymouth Sound. This Peninsula is often overlooked by tourists on their way to Polperro and Looe. The Peninsula offers a relaxing holiday in an area of outstanding beauty.

The South facing Whitsand bay is one of Cornwall's most breathtaking stretches of coastline. The bay offering over four miles of golden sand with a clean beach ideal for water sports. Life guards patrol the beach in summer months.

Cliftonville is one of over 300 Chalets perched on the cliff along Whitsand Bay. They offer stunning coastal views, catching every bit of the day's sunshine. The view from the chalet is ever changing with the moods of the sea. Views include Handgliders/ Paragliders taking off near the chalet, the Rame Peninsular, Surfers, Jet Skies, Water Skiers, the Eddystone Lighthouse, the diving wreck of the Scylla, Fishing boats, Naval manoeuvres, Submarines, Dinghy's, Speedboats, Yachts, Sea birds, Birds of Prey, Porpoise and the coastline to the Lizard, all in one sweeping Bay.

Uniquely Cliftonville has a 160 degree panoramic view from the lounge. A more limited view can be enjoyed from the conservatory. The gardens offer a mixture of sea views and rolling countryside, with a 30ft 180-degree panoramic sea view patio.

The chalet is entered via a stable door into the Kitchen, which has a range of fitted units, fridge/freezer, microwave, oven/hob and dishwasher.

The French doors lead from the kitchen into the lounge, which has a comfortable three-piece leather suite, with an additional single bed settee.

Entertainment is provided by, TV with Freeview, Video and Hi-fi.

A wide range of tourist information is available, along with books and games.

In the window area there is a small table with chairs, and a floor mounted telescope.

The raised viewing area has easy chairs to relax in, on inclement days, whilst enjoying the panoramic sea view.

Spacesaver stairs lead from the lounge to the second floor. The loft conversion is sub divided with twin beds, wardrobe and drawers. There is a further pull down bed and a cloakroom for occasional use.

Velux windows give views across the open fields

The centrally heated conservatory is used as a dining room, enjoying sea views.

The double bedroom has a vanity unit, dressing table, and built in wardrobes, with views to the rear fields and side views to the coast

The rear bedroom has a single Captains Bed with drawers and a further 2'6" pull out bed underneath, (suitable for use with sleeping bag). It also has a built in wardrobe, drawers and a TV. A small window gives field views and patio door leads out to the rear.

The bathroom is well equipped with an electric shower over a corner bath. and shaver point

For a relaxing holiday you do not even need to leave the peninsular. Where you can enjoy panoramic sea views, the coastal villages of Cremyll, Portwrinkle, Kingsand, and Cawsand. also the inland villages of Millbrook, Antony, St John, and Crafthole.,

The tourist attraction of Antony House and Mount Edgcomb Country Park are within a few miles. The natural beauty of Rame head and its Forts provide excellent coastal walking.
